

STEPHANIE CHEN

GRAPHIC DESIGNER

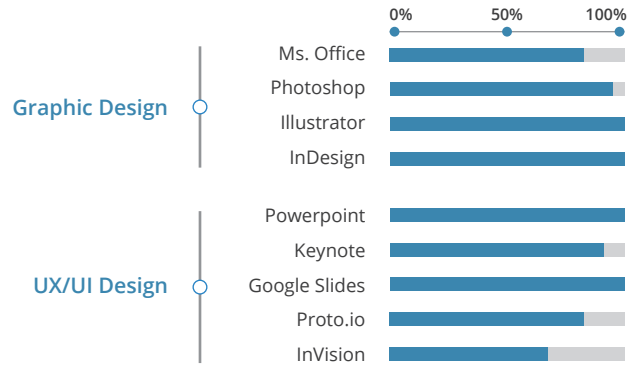

ABOUT ME

I am a Graphic Designer with 6+ years of industry experience. I've have extensive knowledge in the design industry and I have an organized and detail-oriented work ethic.

As a graphic designer, I have created a variety of products and brand identities for both online and print projects. A few of my past projects range from logo/branding identities to online infographics as well as large scale tradeshow booth designs. I've also assisted in Art Direction in my previous role and managed my own small scale design team.

I look forward to working with a new and innovative team in the near future, thank you.
